Beskjed Fra Vice Presidenten – Amending The By-Laws

The Valhall board met on April 20th to the 2nd board meeting of the year and one of the issues reviewed was the amending of the Valhall Lodge Standing Rules. After a thorough review of the Standing Rules, the board found that some were outdated and in need of amending or eliminating altogether. A list of the current Standing Rules and the recommended amendments or deletions will be provided in the June Valhall Viking for the membership's review prior to voting at the June Business Meeting.

The Valhall Delegates and Alternates to the SON District 6 Biannual Convention, hosted "Brunch and a Movie" for the April Social on Saturday the 17th at the East San Diego Masonic Lodge. 96 guests attended and enjoyed a wonderful menu of items such as Norwegian waffles and pancakes, meat and veggie quiche, sausage, fruit and Mimosa. After the delicious brunch was a showing of the movie "Max Manus", a true story about one of the most brilliant Norwegian saboteurs of WWII.

Many prizes were raffled off to help raise money and defer the expenses of the delegates to the convention. If you won any of the Padres tickets that were raffled off during the Brunch, please send me an email or call me with a list of 3 Padres game dates you would like to attend and I will try to accommodate you. The sooner you provide me with the dates, the better your opportunity to get that date.

In addition to attending the District 6 Convention and representing Valhall Lodge on some very important issues concerning the Constitution and By-Laws of the Sons of Norway, each delegate was given a SON Foundation Pledge Package to take to the convention. If you would like to pledge a donation to the SON Foundation through one of your delegates please contact them prior to June 23rd.

Jim and Kay Woldner, the current Lodge Librarian and Historian, have left for South Dakota for the summer and will not return until October. If there is anyone who would like to assume the Librarian and Historian positions, please contact the lodge secretary Mary Hindshaw or me. As a reminder, we are still looking for a Tubfrim Chairman and Call Tree Coordinator. If you could help us fill those positions or know anyone who could, please let Mary Hindshaw or I know.

I look forward to seeing you at our next business meeting on May 3rd at 7:30 PM!
Until then!

Hilsen,

Rick Hausvik

Valhall Lodge—A Historic Look

Valhall and the House of Norway

In 1935, when the city of San Diego revived the Pan-California Exposition (which originally the city had hosted in 1915) many ethnic groups were contacted and asked if they would be interested in presenting their culture and heritage in Balboa Park, which was under the blanket of the larger organization, the House of Pacific Relations.

Valhall was one of the ethnic groups contacted and accepted the challenge of opening the House of Norway, and it has been in existence since that date.

Open every Sunday during the year from 12-4 p.m., and also open for cultural field trips and other events during the week by appointment, the House of Norway has been a focal point of the Norwegian community since inception.

Valhall has been part of this endeavor every year by assisting in supporting the 17th of May celebration and many other events with a public display of our culture and heritage. A good percentage of the members of House of Norway are also members of Valhall and enthusiastically support both organizations.

Written by Lorraine Tucker, former lodge historian.

Ladies of Valhall LOV notes..

Next meeting: May 1, 2010 at Denny's in Fletcher Hills.

Hostesses: Mari Rem and Peggy Gere

Our April meeting was called to order at 9:16 am, we had 16 members present, and no guests. A thank you gift was presented to Lorraine Tucker for her past year's service as Vice-President.

Ingrid Lindgren reported that she was able to find a volunteer to store Lille Buttiken items for this year's event just in time for her Norwegian visitors. She will have more information and ideas for the Lille Buttiken at upcoming meetings. There was also a discussion about a portrait of the King and Queen of Norway that Ingrid has had for a number of years. A motion was made, seconded and passed that the portrait will be given to the House of Norway in Balboa Park to be displayed there. The portrait would also be available through the House of Norway to lend to other Norwegian groups' functions at the House's discretion. We look forward to seeing the portrait enjoyed by international visitors, and members of House of Norway.

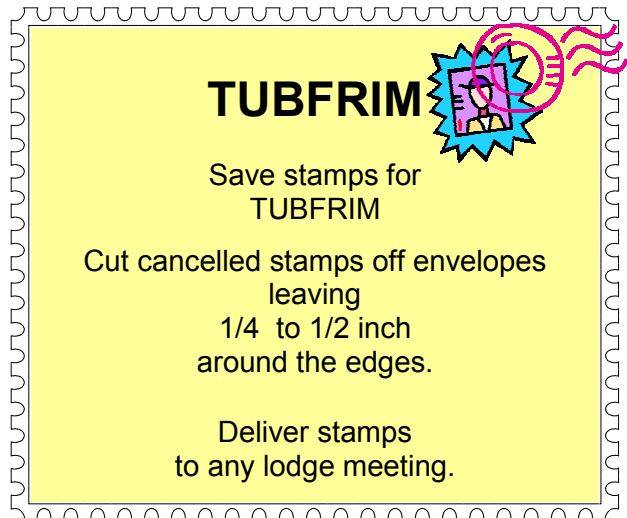

Anna Hoidal gave an update on the San Diego Art Museum's Arts Alive exhibit. Tickets are $15 for non museum members. She suggested we meet Fri. April 30, at 9:30 am outside the museum entrance. After the tour, we will meet at the House of Norway for refreshments. There is no need to RSVP.

There was interest among LOV members to initiate a book club, with readings being selected from Norwegian authors. This group would probably meet after the LOV meeting is adjourned, so that those not interested would not be obligated to attend. There will be more discussion at a future meeting. Ingrid will also bring in the books previously purchased by LOV so that new members might be able to read them, or other members can re-read them if they would like.

Our next meeting will be held on May 1. Hostesses will be Mari Rem and Peggy Gere.

The meeting was adjourned at 10:48.

IN MEMORY

MARLENE MAE LESNEY
1931–2010

Marlene Mae Lesney passed away peacefully at age 78 on April 7, 2010. She was born in Wisconsin and moved to the state of Washington with her family when she was nine.

During her college years she was the first woman editor of their newsletter and also sang in the "The Choir of the West". In 1951, she and her family again moved, this time to San Diego. Marlene completed her degree at SDSU, and became a teacher.

Marlene was also a talented organizer and planner, as many of us have seen through her years as president and member of the Valhall LOV group. She joined Valhall in 1992 and was an active member until her health declined. She recently wrote and gave the women of LOV a song about their group. She has many friends at Valhall and will be greatly missed.

Our sympathy goes out to her many friends and to her devoted husband of 49 years, Don Lesney. Don is an active member of our lodge.

Barnetog – Children’s parade

In contrast to many other countries which celebrate their national holidays with big military parades, Norway celebrates by showing off their pride and hope for the future, their children, in an important tradition called barnetog, the children’s parade.

The barnetog is a Norwegian cultural institution connected to the celebration of Norway’s Constitution Day, May 17th, or Syttende Mai. Every Syttende Mai all the country’s children march in parades with small Norwegian flags in their hands and colorful banners proclaiming their school or class.

The barnetog tradition comes from the 1800s. At that time Norway was part of a political union with Sweden. Many Norwegians wanted Norway to become a completely independent country, and celebration Syttende Mai became a kind of peaceful protest. In 1869 school principle Peter Qvam got the idea to star a child’s parade. Qvam was a close friend of poet and national hero Bjørnstjerne Bjørnson, and together they argued and agitated for the barnetog in newspapers and other forums.

The first barnetog was held on Syttende Mai in 1870. It consisted solely of boys and numbered 1200 strong. The idea soon became popular all over the country. The first girls joined the parade in 1889.

Around the country you can find local variations in how the holiday is celebrated. In Bergen, for example, the buekorps, a special type of scouting group, make their mark on the holiday. In Oslo, the children mark past the Palace, where the royal family stand on the balcony and wave to them.

Westminster’s Newest Norwegian Competitors

For the first time in the 134-year history of the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show a trio of Norwegian Buhunds competed among 173 other dog breeds to win a title at the prestigious dog show. The dogs, and other recent additions to the show like Pyrenean Shepherds and Irish Red and White Setters, became eligible for the competition just last year after the American Kennel Club formally recognized their breeds.

The three buhunds at the WKC dog show, Sophie, Casper and Lola, competed for individual titles within their breed as well as larger titles such as “best in show” and “best of group.” While none of the buhunds took home the top awards, they were part of a select group of 25 buhunds that are part of the national competition circuit. Vali Eberhardt, Sophie’s owner, speculates that the quality of the competitive buhunds is so high due to their sire, a dog named Magnus, who is related to almost every buhund in the U.S.

To learn more about the Westminster Kennel Club Dog Show results or to learn more about Norwegian Buhunds, visit <http://www.westminsterkennelclub.org> or <http://www.buhund.org>.

A Virtual Norway Vacation

Google Street View has become one of the premiere tools for taking a virtual vacation, and now with its addition of Norwegian destinations, a person can finally visit Bergen and Oslo, or use the free service to help plan a future real vacation by using their computer.

What makes Google Street View so useful is that it allows users to take a 3-D virtual tour of a location by using a series of compiled photographs, collected from cameras and lasers mounted to cars used by Google. As the car travels a route, it takes photos, which are then assembled into a virtual, online system that makes the user feel as if they were actually standing on Henrik Ibsens Gate, looking at the Royal Palace in Oslo.
